The Honorable John J. Stennis
United States Senate
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Senator:

For God's sake, Mr. Senator, use your every means to stymie senate confirmation of W. Wilson White as Director of Civil Rights Division of the new so-called Civil Rights bill.

The man is dangerous and sick, sick, sick.

Yours very truly,

Commission

Mr. [REDACTED]
P. O. Box [REDACTED]
Sunflower, Miss.

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]:

Thank you for your letter of February 5th regarding the dangers of Mr. White's appointment as Director of the new Civil Rights Division.

I am certainly bearing your views in mind and will make every effort to see that the South is protected in this appointment since the best we can hope for under such a bad law is that we will have able personnel charged with the responsibility of its administration.

Thanks for writing me on this matter, and I hope that you will always give me the benefit of your thinking on subjects of concern to you in the future.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

John Stennis
United States Senator
